Maxthon Standard [DISCONTINUED] Download

Maxthon Standard is a web browser developed by Maxthon, a famous Asian browser producer. The new version of the software implements a browser that is fast and easy to operate thanks to all the built-in features available for free. The browser offers an easy interface and a set of features that help to make the browsing experience pleasant and safe. The browser is based on the Internet Explorer engine and it is very similar to the recently released Maxthon Cloud Browser. That, however, makes it possible to use it seamlessly with existing Internet Explorer settings. For example, the Maxthon Standard can be set to automatically fill forms, reduce spam emails and handle security issues. The main difference between the two browsers is the functions available. The new version of the browser offers different tools, such as contextual menus, text-to-speech and drag 'n' drop actions. Also, the interface has a new look. Furthermore, Maxthon Cloud Browser is based on the new Microsoft Silverlight technology, while Maxthon Standard is browser that doesn't support it. That's why this browser doesn't have the cloud functions and online storage. If you want a simple browser to be able to access websites quickly and easily, you can use the Maxthon Standard. You'll be able to set it up so it automatically fills the forms you visit, and act like a secure webmail client. Best Maxthon Standard Download 0 comments Please sign in or register. What's New in the Maxthon Standard [DISCONTINUED]?

Maxthon Standard Browser is a browser that combines great features with innovative functionalities. Its interface consists of a set of navigation buttons, a toolbar and a small panel for its search engine. Maxthon provides a wide range of customization and management options that ensure a seamless browsing experience. Users can create a custom 'Favorites Bar' with all the URLs they frequent the most, which is easily accessible by simply clicking on the menu button and selecting the 'Favorites' option. They can also create 'Sessions' to collect the same URLs or the same content on multiple sites; 'Pages' to display them on a desktop panel; and 'ScrollTabs' to display them on a separate panel that you can simply drag and drop from any page. Its 'Super Drag&Drop' function makes it easier for users to navigate through webpages by using mouse gestures. The browser also comes with enhanced translation shortcuts for many languages. Finally, the 'Ad Hunter' ad blocker is capable of filtering online content, whether it is popups, Web ads or ActiveX plugins. Having a 'Browser's Home', the browser also comes with a built-in text editor, which is displayed as a small panel on the toolbar. Users can use it to quickly copy and paste relevant information or to add it to the browser's personal favorites. Its tab panel allows users to quickly open more than one webpage at the same time. The 'Favorites Bar' provides easy access to URLs (webpages and online content) that are visited frequently; the 'Search' tool allows you to find what you are looking for online; and the 'Group Manager' panel allows you to create personalized sessions, which can be saved and resumed from any page.
